The Rix

Old friends Rik Palieri and Rick Nestler, proponents of the "Hudson River School of Music", take the stage as a duo for an evening filled with songs both old and new, familiar and obscure, and from poignant to just plain zany! Playing individually and together in various combinations on guitars, banjos, ukulele, Native American flute, Ozark Mouth bow, autoharp and perhaps even the Polish bagpipe, they will offer plenty of chances for ricknestler.com banjo.net singing along, foot tapping, knee slapping, and belly laughing!

Chris Nauman

Cleveland-born Chris Nauman is an award winning singer/songwriter who pumps passion into his performance with his dynamic guitar work and expressive vocals. He commands the stage with a keen sense of honesty and freshness. Drawing inspiration from Neil Young, Bruce Springsteen, Jeff Tweedy, Colin Meloy, Bob Dylan and others, Nauman channels his Midwestern sensibilities into a spirited blend of Americana and folk-rock. Sometimes caressing, sometimes kinetic, his music is always sure to please. chrisnauman.com

Bill & Eli Perras

The many inspired lyrics interpreted by Eli, combined with Bill's bluesy finger-style guitar playing, create a uniquely modern take on true Americana music in its purest form. Receiving much recognition for their tightly woven musical creativity, they humbly remain true to their personal values. They speak out with strong heartfelt lyrics accompanied by soulful rhythms against social injustices, corporate greed, and follies in everyday life. Eli & Bill are mainstays of the Florida folk scene. perrasmusic.com

George Mann

A former union organizer and activist in New York, George Mann sings songs from the last century of labor and social activism, and his own songs are powerful and funny takes on the state of the nation. His concerts are part singalong, part history lesson, and he can make you shout for joy, send chills down your spine or bring tears to your eyes in the same set. George created and produced the Hail to the Thief! anti-Bush CD series, which featured Tom Paxton, Utah Phillips, Billy Bragg, and others, and The Almanac Trail, a CD that celebrates the music of The Almanac Singers. georgemann.org
