

THE NEW YORK CITY CHAPTER
OF THE
PEOPLE'S MUSIC NETWORK
PRESENTS

“No Kings!”
“No Wars in My Name!”

You love this country and are angered, shocked, and saddened by what is happening. Everyday brings more bad news, the expansion of executive power, and the madness of war.

You envision a world of equity, sustainability, justice and love, but what you see and feel is pain and injustice. And the death of democracy.

So, what do you do? Who are your friends? How do you participate and how do you organize to make a difference?

It is time to get together, express ourselves, and organize.

No Kings Day protests were a loud statement that we are not alone.

What is the next step? That is up to you and me and everyone else you talk to and spend time with. Join us for an evening of activism and community. And music too.
